

NB: for quick editing, click “file” and then click “make a copy”

Assignment 1 - Graphic Organizer

Complete the following Graphic Organizer below and submit your work to the dropbox.

Fill in this editable Graphic Organizer that will demonstrate your understanding of some of Canada’s social and cultural changes since 1890.

This organizer should show a typical day for a Canadian high school student in 1914 and 2020. Include mundane, seemingly unimportant facts such as riding the bus or turning on the television or milking the family cow and studying Arithmetic. Share this document with and allow me to make suggestions or comments. Share with daquilj02@tcdsb.ca.

Typical Teenage Day in 1914	Typical Teenage Day in 2020
Outside Influences -A typical influence that a typical teenager has in his daily life in 1914 is the growing and more powerful neighbor which is the United States. Their neighbor has a tremendous influence on Canadian politics, economics, and even culture.	Outside Influences -A typical influence that a typical teenager has in their daily life in 2020 would be the world around Canada. The dairy products and daily trends that are popular would influence a daily Canadian. -A typical influence that a typical teenager has in their daily life in 2020 would be the daily worry of Covid-19. A disease that affected the world, worldwide. It is said that some may die, especially the elderly or newborns while having this disease.
School / Work / Church -A typical teenager in 1914 when they go to school is either going on a train, riding a bike, or walking all the way to school. -A typical teenager in 1914 when they go to work is either helping your family business like being a waiter/waitress, a cash register or helping out on their farm.	School / Work / Church -A typical teenager in 2020 used to go to school either on buses, cars, trains, bikes, or even walking if they were close by however now they were even able to attend school even if they were home with something called, ‘Online Learning.’ -A typical teenager in 2020 would work either

-A typical teenager in 1914 would be influenced by their family as most of them had an English background which brought the religion with them to Canada when immigrating.	part-time job. Most teenagers usually do these jobs not because it was necessary to survive but instead to buy new products and things that can provide more of a luxury to oneself. -A typical teenager in 2020 would most definitely not go to church in 2020. Mostly because of Covid-19 and measures to stop the spread of this disease.
Family -A typical teenager in 1914 would spend more time with his family. They might help out with their work, talk about the things in school, and be much closer than they were with friends.	Family -A typical teenager in 2020 would spend his time with his family more due to Covid-19 restrictions put on them by the government in trying to prevent many people from leaving their houses. However, most teenagers in 2020 would not be that close to their families but more to their friends.
Entertainment -A typical teenager in 1914 would spend his time either buying delicious food or playing sports with his friends and family.	Entertainment -A typical teenager in 2020 would spend his time idling around playing video games, watching videos, or scrolling around in social media.
Stresses / Satisfactions - A typical teenager in 1914 would spend his time either getting into fights, drinking booze, and maybe trying to find their love.	Stresses / Satisfactions - A typical teenager would mostly play games to release their stress and be filled with satisfaction however there are some who might smoke or even drink alcohol.